TPA ANTITRUST CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

The Tennessee Pharmacists Association (TPA) is a voluntary association comprised of licensed pharmacists who practice in varied settings. Consequently, the members of TPA are deemed to be in competition with each other for purposes of state and federal antitrust law. TPA can not and will not condone any activity which might be viewed as a violation of the antitrust laws. It is the express purpose of TPA meetings and online communities to promote the highest degree of professionalism in Tennessee pharmacy practice. Discussions involving anti-competitive activity are contrary to this purpose, and will not be tolerated. Any person or group of persons involved in inappropriate discussion or other activity which may be viewed as a violation of antitrust law will no longer be allowed to participate in TPA meetings or online communities. TPA has a zero tolerance policy on this issue, and we thank you in advance for your cooperation on this point.
